

Short CV of Mr. Fahmi Shahab (1)

Fahmi is the Executive Director of the Indonesian Mediation Center (PMN) —a professional and independent institution provides mediation and certified mediation training course, one of the most senior training provider being accredited by the Indonesian Supreme Court, based in Jakarta. He has been a facilitative mediator since 2000, assisting parties in getting the deals on debt restructuring, shareholder dispute and other business disputes. Empanelled as mediator with PMN, first-instance courts, LAPS SJK (ADR for Financial Services Sector Dispute), RSPO (Palm Oil) and APCAM. He serves as Secretary General of Asia Pacific Centre for Arbitration & Mediation (APCAM) and assumes as Singapore International Mediation Centre's Ambassador (SIMC).

Fahmi served in various roles such as Chairman of Asian Mediation Association (AMA 2018-19), Consultant in Enhancing Democracy and Citizens' Trust in Governance: Adopting a Fair Treatment Approach in Indonesia's Ombudsman Offices (PMN-Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam-Dutch National Ombudsman-Centre for Conflict Resolution-Van Vollenhoven Institute: consortium), Senior Short-Term Expert in EU-Indonesia Trade Cooperation Facility, Technical Assistance on Alternative Disputes Resolution to Indonesia Investment Coordinating Board (BKPM) and Visiting Fellow at Gakushuin University, Tokyo, Japan. He holds a Master of Business Law (MBL) from University of Sydney, Australia, as an AusAID-ADS scholarship recipient and a bachelor degree in Economics (SE) from Gadjah Mada University, Indonesia.