Educational/Professional Background

A senior Litigation and Arbitration Partner of Clyde & Co in London, Jane has been a Dispute Resolution practitioner for over 40 years and has been involved in Alternative Dispute Resolution, primarily mediation, since 1995 when representing a party in one of the first major English mediations. Trained by CEDR (and subsequently a Director of CEDR for over a decade) and first accredited in June 1996, she has been involved as mediator in over 800 mediations covering a wide variety of international high value commercial disputes of a complex and/or multi-party nature.

Mediation Style

While believing it is for others to judge mediation style, Jane would say that, while always facilitative, she does not shy away from evaluating individual approaches or arguments. She will not however seek to predict the overall outcome of litigation, recognising that a mediator only ever sees part of the picture.

Mediation Experience

23 years; 800 + mediations.

Jane has mediated disputes involving aviation, agency, banking and finance, business contracts, construction and property disputes, commodities, employment, trusts, insurance and reinsurance, lender liability, marine, aviation and energy disputes, professional liability, partnership/joint ventures and transportation.
