Background:

Mr. Lian has been actively practicing dispute resolution, including litigation, arbitration, and mediation as counsel in the U.S. since 2010, representing numerous cross-border clients in strategically important matters in various forums, such as U.S. state and federal courts as well as various arbitral tribunals. Mr. Lian regularly represents clients in English proceedings where testimonies and documents in Chinese are involved. He also teaches common law classes in influential universities in China, such as Peking University and Fudan University. Moreover, he has conducted dispute and risk management training for hundreds of lawyers and in-house counsel in the Asia area.

Mediation Style

An objective, neutral, and direct approach with professional passion.

Mediation Experience

Mr. Lian has been actively practicing mediation as counsel in U.S. proceedings since 2010, including both private and court-ordered sessions. Mr. Lian is experienced in representing Chinese-speaking clients in mediation conducted in English.

With his extensive experiences in settling strategically important cross-border disputes through mediation, he has developed unique skills to mediate cross-border cases where challenging jurisdiction, discovery, data security, and case management concerns are involved.
