Educational/Professional Background

Shul Park is an attorney admitted to the Korean Bar in the International Arbitration & Cross-Border Litigation Practice of Kim & Chang. Ms. Park has played a key role in advancing the team's arbitration practice in newly emerging areas and has been recognized as a "Next Generation Partner" in the Legal 500 Asia Pacific 2022 rankings.

Ms. Park has experience in handling various types of disputes arising from a wide range of business sectors, including disputes involving insurance, distribution, joint venture and shareholders agreements arising from construction, development, pharmaceutical and finance sectors. She has handled arbitration administered by institution such as ICC, KCAB, SIAC and CCBC, as well as ad hoc arbitration. In particular, Ms. Park has successfully represented a Korean subsidiary of a multinational JV company in ICC arbitration, including Emergency Arbitrator proceedings, on a dispute related to distribution of construction material. She is also involved in billion-dollar disputes, including a dispute involving a joint venture agreement for which she represented a Korean pharmaceutical company and a dispute regarding the exercise of a put option to exit a Korean company for which she presented private equity funds. She is also representing a Japanese multinational company in an insurance claim against an insurance company.

Ms. Park has been at the forefront of the most recent developments in arbitration practice including emergency proceedings, investor-state disputes, and virtual proceedings. She has contributed to the arbitration community by authoring a number of publications on these topics. Her most recent publications include "Procedural Issues in an Arbitration: Disclosure, The Guide to Investment Treaty Protection and Enforcement (Co-author, Global Arbitration Review, 2022)” and “Shift in Paradigm in Investor-State Arbitration: Corporate Social Responsibility and Sustainability, Korea Arbitration Review (Issue 11) (Co-author, KCAB International, 2020).”

Ms. Park received a J.D. from School of Law, Seoul National University in 2015 and an LL.B. from College of Law, Seoul National University in 2012. Ms. Park also received an LL.M from Harvard Law School in 2019.

Mediation Style

Based on her experience with negotiation and mediation, Ms. Park believes in the strength of collaborative approach to resolving conflict by assisting the parties to find common grounds of interests and will facilitate communication among the parties as well as explore different options.

Mediation Experience

Ms. Park has advised and served as counsel to multinational companies in various types of disputes arising from a wide range of business sectors and administered by different arbitration institutions, several of which (including the following) have led to successful negotiation and settlement:

- Representing a Korean conglomerate in an ICC arbitration, seated in London and governed by Korean law, of a joint-venture dispute against a US multinational pharmaceutical company.
- Represented and advised a Korean conglomerate against a Polish state government, consortium members, and subcontractors regarding construction claims in multi-jurisdictional proceedings in Poland, including arbitration in Warsaw, potential investment claims, and multiple litigations.
